

ANORAKS, 2019

Running Time: 5 mins

Arthur & Gwen are siblings, they're also obsessive Cornish re-enactors on a quest.

Writers:
Miles Sloman,
Bryher Flanders,
Zoe Alker

Director:
Zoe Alker

DOG YEARS, 2020

Running Time: 17 mins

Depressed and living in isolation, Demelza promises to leap from the cliffs of her Cornish village when her elderly dog Lucky dies. Can she find a reason to live before he snuffs it?

Writer:
Jake J. Mackintosh

Director:
Natalys Willcox

HARD, CRACKED THE WIND, 2019

Running Time: 17 mins

A young Cornish poet is compelled to buy an old writing case, curiously engraved with her own initials. Opening the case and reading the faint traces of a poem inside calls the previous owner back from the shadows.

Writer:
Adrian Bailey

Director:
Mark Jenkin

HOLIDAY! 2019

Running Time: 10 mins

'Holiday!' is a comedy about a French tourist visiting a sleepy Cornish town-in search of the best ice-cream around.

Writer / Director:
Toby Matthews

KESTAV (CONTACT), 2021

Running Time: 15 mins

A Cornish-speaking alien returns to earth with the mortal remains of a 10th century pilgrim and demands to speak with Jenna Gwennap.

Writer / Director:
Christopher Morris

Language: Cornish
Subtitles: English

LIDO, 2020

Running Time: 5 mins

Writer/Director:
Michael Eddy

Lido is a film that explores Autism, memory, and the spectrum of human emotion. Set in Penzance, young Huxley has visions of times past. He journeys through memory and reality, highlighting his desire to find what he is looking for.

MAB HUDEL (MAGICAL SON), 2021

Running Time: 11 mins

Writer/Director:
Edward Rowe

A Cornish language short film about Enys Penrose, a fantastic rugby player, hapless farmer, and young gay man. He leads his local rugby team to the final of The Cornwall Cup where he not only faces the love of his life, but his sexuality...

Language: Cornish
Subtitles: English

MERMAIDS, 2022

Running Time: 15 mins

Writer/Director:
Yasmin Joy Vigus

Two twenty-something former best friends Margo and Celeste meet again at a hen party back in Cornwall, but under the waves of disappointment and failure, will the reunion cause them to sink or swim?

MOWES (LASS), 2020

Running Time: 12 mins

Writer/Director:
Bryher Flanders

Jan works at her father's old fashioned clothing shop, but her life is about to change when singer Helen comes in to buy a suit.

Language: Cornish
Subtitles: English

TOM'S DREAM, 2021

Running Time: 5 mins

Writer:
Jowan Jacobos

A young boy in Camborne finds a discarded surfboard and attempts to reach the coast.

Director:
Jonny Dry